

All UK students can apply for travel grants to help with the costs of commuting to campus or for study related travel costs, which might be for a placement, to attend a conference or for an international exchange

Information for students practice and evaluate ways of working which wil